

Presbyterian Association of Homes and Services for the Aging

Our Mission

The mission of the Presbyterian Association of Homes and Services for The Aging is to provide and encourage networking and educational opportunities among its members, and to interpret the ministry of its members to the Presbyterian Church (USA) and others.

A Word of Explanation

The number of units correspond to the facility type. “Total units in facility” refers to all units located at the specified facility and address.

Independent Living Units: Independent living or Retirement housing is a self-contained housing community designed specifically for senior adults. These communities may offer an optional meal program, housekeeping services, planned activities and recreational programs, and emergency response services. Independent living typically has a social and recreational focus. The resident usually needs to secure their own personal and health care services through community agencies. Fees vary from subsidized rents based on income to entrance investments with monthly maintenance charges.

Assisted Living Units/ Sheltered Care/ Residential Care: Assisted living has many names, each in accordance with state regulations and licenses. Unit sizes vary from studios to large two bedroom units. Typical services offered in assisted living type facilities include meals, emergency response system, scheduled activity programs, housekeeping, and laundry services personal care services are available and may include medication monitoring, assistance with dressing, bathing, and personal hygiene. Professional staff is usually available through a wellness clinic or at designated times. Fees vary from all-inclusive rates to a fee based on individual service needs.

Skilled Nursing: Skilled nursing facilities offer 24 hour skilled nursing care with rehabilitation services. Many facilities offer short term rehabilitation programs on an inpatient and outpatient basis. Many facilities offer specialty care services such as Alzheimer’s and Dementia Care, hospice care, and subacute care services.

Resources: If you are not sure what services a campus may offer, or what care you or someone may need, please call a Presbyterian facility near you and they will direct you appropriate resources and services. ElderCare Locator is a federally funded national resource at 1-800-677-1116. Please call the Presbyterian Association at 800-720-7434 if you are not able to locate the services you need.

Each community listed in this directory is a current member of the Presbyterian Association of Homes and Services for the Aging. Each community supports the mission of the Association. Membership in PAHSA does not provide an endorsement by the Presbyterian Church USA for an quality standards or formal relationship to the Church.

The compilation of a Directory such as this requires the interest and participation of many persons. Additions and corrections are always welcome and may be directed to:
